Gerald Stang Joins Field Law

For Immediate Release, Alberta and Northwest Territories –May 10, 2010 – Gerald Stang and the Peterson Stang Corporate Department to join Field Law Offices.

Since 1990, Field Law has been serving northern clients needs in Yellowknife with the support of offices in Edmonton and Calgary, Alberta. They have made a commitment to practicing in the North and support the Yellowknife based lawyers with an additional 11 lawyers licensed to practice in the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Recently, Field Law was ranked as one of the top 5 regional law firms in Western Canada and the North.

Peterson Stang has been a fixture in the Yellowknife legal community for over 66 years, but is now undergoing some exciting changes. Congratulations are extended to Garth Malakoe on his appointment to the Territorial Court of the Northwest Territories, and Kathy Peterson on her retirement from the practice of law, after long and illustrious careers serving clients in the Northwest Territories and Nunavut.

As always, Peterson Stang's clients' needs are a top priority and as such, we are pleased to announce that Gerald Stang will be continuing in practice with the Field Law team in Yellowknife.

Gerald, along with Eileen Walton, Sandra Wowk and Evelyn Layden will be relocating to the Field Law offices in late August, and will continue to provide the same excellent service they have always prided themselves on.
