Overview

Brandon Harrison is a lawyer in our Calgary office with a focus on insurance and general litigation work.

Prior to joining Field Law, Brandon practiced at a litigation firm in North Vancouver, BC, with a focus on insurance defence matters, in addition to other general litigation matters including contractual disputes and strata property law matters. Brandon routinely appeared before the Provincial Court of British Columbia and the Supreme Court of British Columbia on behalf of his clients.

Brandon attended law school at Thompson Rivers University in Kamloops, BC, where he was awarded the Law Society of British Columbia 'Gold Medal' for obtaining the highest-grade point average of his graduating class (tied with a fellow classmate). Prior to graduating, Brandon spent two summers working with the Alberta Crown Prosecution Service as a law student, dealing with various regulatory and criminal matters. He was able to attend court on a weekly basis and develop his advocacy skills, which helped him in his transition to the world of civil litigation.

Value to Clients

"I strive to provide objective and forthright advice and opinion to my clients. This allows each client to fully understand their position, and assists in providing direction on the best path forward."

Outside the Office

In his spare time, Brandon enjoys tinkering with vehicles, exploring the many craft breweries in the area, and spending time in the Shuswap with his family.
