Overview

Cindy Partin joined Field Law in 2017 as a real estate clerk. In 2019, she transitioned into a real estate paralegal position.

Cindy assists with residential conveyancing as well as working with residential developers to complete lot transfers and payouts to residential home builders in the surrounding Calgary area.

Value to Clients

"A real estate transaction can be a very stressful and emotional time! I always bring a positive attitude and plenty of patience to help things run as smoothly as possible"

Outside the Office

Cindy spends as much time in the short golf season as she can out on the course. On her spare time away from the golf course, you can find Cindy watching or attending sporting events of all types with her young family.
