Overview

Eden Wright started with Field Law in 2015 as a practicum student and subsequently joined the float team working with various departments around the firm. From there, she began working in the Wills, Estates + Trusts group, assisting lawyers with both estate planning and estate administration files, as well as contested matters.

In 2019 Eden moved in to a paralegal position in the Wills, Estates + Trusts group and assists clients with estate planning, applications for probate or administration, guardianship and trusteeship applications, and litigious matters.

Value to Clients

Eden's strong background in customer service enables her to approach clients with patience, kindness and professionalism.

Outside the Office

Eden is an avid reader and enjoys hiking in the mountains and traveling with friends and family.
