Overview

Jonathon Austin is an Edmonton-based lawyer with a focus on general litigation and insurance matters.

Before joining Field, he worked as 'in-house' counsel with a prominent national insurer and started his career representing injured plaintiffs. He strives to provide clear and practical legal advice.

Jonathon has appeared on matters before all levels of Court in Alberta. He has significant experience conducting Judicial Dispute Resolutions and mediations.

Value to Clients

"I always aim to advance files in a timely and cost-effective manner and I understand the importance of timely communication and collaboration with my clients."

Outside the Office

Outside of the office, Jonathon can be found watching and reading about the Oilers. He enjoys cycling and exploring Edmonton for coffee and baked goods with his spouse.
