Overview

Lee Carter is a partner in our Calgary office. His practice focuses on labour and employment law, litigation, and dispute resolution.

Lee advises clients on a broad range of labour and employment law matters, including wrongful dismissal claims, human rights complaints, occupational health and safety investigations, employment standards legislation, employment contracts and policies, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements.

Lee has successfully negotiated numerous out-of-court settlements for his clients, and he frequently litigates workplace-related matters before the Provincial Court of Alberta, the Court of King's Bench of Alberta, and various administrative tribunals.

Outside the Office

In his spare time, Lee is usually hiking with his family in the eastern slopes of the Rocky Mountains.
