Overview

Lory French has over 15 years of experience in real estate as a legal assistant and paralegal. She is passionate about real estate and enjoys keeping up with the fast pace of the industry. Lory understands the stress that accompanies a real estate transaction and tries to help clients by walking them through the process and educating them on what to expect at each stage.

Value to Clients

“Closing a real estate deal is a stressful time. I try to take the stress away from the client by gathering as much information in advance and proactively responding to issues before they become a problem.”

Outside the Office

Lory spends most of her time in the summer at her summer campsite at Buffalo Lake where she has become a novice golfer. In the winter, she cruises to hot destination with family and friends.
