Overview

Lyndon Thiessen is a member of our Business Law Group in Edmonton and Calgary, focusing on commercial purchase and sale transactions, strategic corporate restructuring, shareholder and partnership agreements, and commercial real estate transactions and developments.

Entrepreneurs turn to Lyndon for strategic advice and assistance in formulating and executing plans that support their goals, allowing them to focus on running their businesses. Using his experience gained over 30 years, Lyndon has a client base of over 1,500 businesses in Alberta, the Northwest Territories, and across Western Canada spanning a broad range of industries, services, and professions.

Integrity, accountability, and responsibility are Lyndon's guiding principles in providing advice and direction to his clients. Lyndon focuses on building solid relationships with his clients, enabling him to understand and better meet their diverse legal needs and fulfil a role similar to that of in-house counsel.

Value to Clients

"I love working with entrepreneurs and learning about their goals and vision for their businesses and lives moving forward. This understanding forms the foundation of our relationship and, over time, allows me to support my clients with advice uniquely tailored to them. This is my privilege and passion."

Outside the Office

Lyndon loves to sail, hike in the mountains and travel in his spare time.
