Overview

With over 30 years of experience, Lyndon is genuinely passionate about working with entrepreneurs and takes the time to deeply understand their goals and vision—both for their businesses and their lives. He partners with clients to help them achieve their objectives, offering strategic advice in areas such as commercial purchase and sale transactions, corporate restructuring, shareholder and partnership agreements, and commercial real estate developments.

Lyndon has cultivated lasting relationships with businesses across Alberta, the Northwest Territories, and Western Canada, supporting a diverse range of industries and professions. His commitment to integrity, accountability, and personalized service means he delivers legal solutions that reflect each client's unique needs and aspirations. By focusing on building meaningful connections, Lyndon empowers entrepreneurs to stay focused on their business goals while he provides the legal foundation to help them succeed.

Lyndon is Practice Group Leader of the Calgary Business Law group and an active member of the Business Law group in Edmonton and Yellowknife.

Value to Clients

"I love working with entrepreneurs and learning about their goals and vision for their businesses and lives moving forward. This understanding forms the foundation of our relationship and, over time, allows me to support my clients with advice uniquely tailored to them. This is my privilege and passion."

Outside the Office

Lyndon loves to sail, hike in the mountains and travel in his spare time.
