Overview

With 30 years of experience in the legal real estate profession, and seven of those years at Field Law, Shannon Adams has an in-depth understanding of the requirements for a successful purchase, sale, or refinance.

Shannon knows how important it is to clients, whether they are the developer, builder, first-time or veteran homeowner, to close their transaction in a smooth, timely and uneventful manner.

Value to Clients

Whether at work or at home, Shannon is able to remain calm and patient, listening to the needs of clients and giving them each her full attention.

Outside the Office

With her husband and six children, they are a busy family and there is no activity that is too big or small for them to take on.
