Overview

Trevor Batty is a corporate restructuring lawyer based in Calgary. His practice focuses on corporate insolvency, restructuring and enforcement matters.

Trevor advises his clients on all aspects of restructuring and insolvency matters, including:

- Receiverships
- Bankruptcies
- Foreclosures
- Bankruptcy proposals
- Proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act

Trevor is a strong advocate for his clients and has represented them at all levels of Court in the Province of Alberta. Trevor acts for a range of clients across Alberta including debtors, chartered banks, other secured creditors and court-appointed officers in insolvency proceedings.

After obtaining his law degree, Trevor performed a joint clerkship at the Alberta Court of Appeal and Court of Queen's Bench where he developed a passion for commercial litigation.

Value to Clients

Trevor recognizes the stress and uncertainty that is created for all parties when a company becomes financially unstable. With over 15 years of legal experience, Trevor is able to help his clients navigate their way through the complexities of insolvency and restructuring processes efficiently and cost-effectively to achieve the best possible result.

Outside the Office

Trevor spends most of his free time with his young family and his two dogs. You will usually find him at various gyms, baseball fields and soccer pitches around Calgary supporting his children in their athletic pursuits.
