Overview

Trina Jackson is a litigation paralegal with 25 years experience working primarily in insurance litigation, collections, and corporate + business disputes.

Trina has a variety of skills including:

- Manufactured home community lease enforcement, including terminating leases for non-payment of rent, terminating leases for a variety of breaches in the lease agreement and recovery of the site when homes are abandoned
- Commercial Lease Enforcement, including terminating commercial leases and landlord's distress seizures
- Unsecured debt recovery and judgment enforcement for debt actions, including commencing actions and enforcement of judgments
- Subrogated insurance claims, including commencing actions and enforcement of judgments
- Personal property security enforcement, including the seizure of secured goods
- Specializing in the enforcement of residential manufactured home leases
- Specializing in the enforcement of debt actions

Trina has been the treasurer for the Alberta Association of Professional Paralegals (AAPP) since 2017, and in 2018, she started working with MacEwan University mentoring students in their Paralegal Studies program. She also volunteers with the Edmonton Legal Community Centre.

Value to clients

Trina believes in strong relations with her clients and works very hard to ensure that she has a full understanding of their business model. Her strength is in her respect for both the client and the tenants and debtors. Trina concentrates on allowing people to feel more comfortable in stressful situations, providing simple language and a variety of options available whenever possible.

Outside the Office

Trina is passionate about wine and in 2018 obtained her Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) Level 1. In the summer months, you will usually find her backcountry hiking one mountain or another and spending time with family and friends.
