Overview

Trish Ryan has over 35 years' experience in the legal industry. She joined the firm in 2003 as a legal assistant and became a paralegal in 2013, focusing mainly on commercial financing, builder property development and sale of property.

Trish has experience working with independent business clients, real estate developers, commercial lenders, borrowers, and purchase and sales of businesses.

Her variety of skills includes:

- Drafting and preparing correspondence with respect to multi-million dollar commercial financings
- Preparing corporate documents for purchase and sale agreements, mortgages, contracts and leases
- Residential lot sales
- Conducting due diligence with respect to new financial transactions, including required registry searches and municipal department inquiries; and
- Meeting with clients and maintain communication throughout duration of transactions.

Outside the Office

Trish enjoys reading, playing golf, camping and gardening. She also has a passion for cultural events, the Arts, and watching various local musicians and bands.
