Overview

Our business lawyers have extensive experience in business structuring and formation, including sole proprietorships, corporations (including unlimited liability companies), partnerships (including general, limited and limited liability partnerships), and joint ventures.

Choosing the right legal structure for your business is essential. We work to identify the best legal structure to suit a client's specific needs based on a variety of factors including tax, ownership, control and liability implications.

Once the ideal legal structure is identified, we take care of preparing the necessary legal and registration documentation to bring your business to life. We also regularly advise our clients on how to manage their general business operations in compliance with applicable laws and industry best practices.
