Overview

Whether you are acquiring or disposing of commercial real estate property, there are many issues that have potential to derail a deal. Both buyers and sellers benefit from working with a law firm experienced with ownership structuring, land assembly, municipal/development issues, environmental issues, negotiating the deal, financing and closing the deal.

By developing creative and practical solutions, we get our clients efficiently to the finish line. We use lean teams and leverage technology to keep costs down. We take a practical approach and provide clear advice to help clients decide the risk profile of the deal.

Our team has decades of cumulative experience working on acquisitions, financing and divestments. Our knowledge and experience means we can add value to a property project at any point in its lifecycle.
