Overview

For over 100 years, Field Law has supported clients across western and northern Canada with thoughtful, forward-looking legal advice. Our Wills, Estates + Trusts group is one of the largest in Alberta, with extensive experience in wills and estate planning, estate administration, trusts, guardianship and trusteeship, and estate litigation.

Estate laws vary by province and territory, so it is important to have legal guidance that reflects those differences. With lawyers called to the Bar in Alberta, British Columbia, and the Northwest Territories, we provide regionally informed advice and cross-jurisdictional support that ensures clients plan effectively and avoid complications.

Wills + Estate Planning

We can advise you on how to most effectively organize your affairs to avoid costs and litigation and to ensure your that your assets and business interests are protected and appropriately dealt within the event of your death or incapacity. Our team can work with you on drafting Wills, Enduring Powers of Attorney and Personal Directives to meet your personal objectives and to provide for your loved ones.

Estate Administration

Many people who are named as estate trustees or executors in a Will have no training or experience in the role. The process of estate administration is often not straightforward, and technical requirements imposed by the common law and legislation must be met. Consulting with a knowledgeable lawyer early in an estate administration helps to ensure that the administration proceeds in a timely and efficient manner, minimizing costs and inconvenience.

Trusts

Whether you are developing a business succession plan or want to protect your family's future, we recognize that estate planning does not happen in isolation of your broader goals. Our role is to design and help implement customized estate planning strategies to protect what matters most to you. We can assist with the preparation and administration of multiple types of trusts to address various priorities such as to ensure ongoing care for a vulnerable loved one or the long-term ownership of a family cottage.

Guardianship + Trusteeship

Guardianship and Trusteeship pertain to the authority to make decisions regarding the property and finances and personal care of an incapacitated adult. Guardianship and Trusteeship applications are lengthy, detailed and require a detailed plan to manage the assets and personal matters of an incapable person. Guardianship and Trusteeship applications are often required when an incapable adult did not otherwise have appropriate planning documents in place, illustrating the importance of proper advance planning.

Estate Litigation + Dispute Resolution

Estate litigation is governed by a separate set of procedural rules requiring specific legal knowledge. Contentious issues often arise at emotionally difficult times and litigation is not always the best solution. Our team has extensive experience working with executors, administrators, attorneys, agents, trustees and beneficiaries in the negotiation, mediation, arbitration and litigation of estate claims. We have the knowledge and experience to assist you with resolution of a wide range of disputes relating to Wills, trusts, and estate administration. We carefully consider and offer a range of dispute resolution and collaborative alternatives to the traditional litigation process.

Charities / Non-Profits

We advise both local and national charities and private foundations on governance issues to ensure compliance with CRA's strict rules regarding the operation of such entities. We also provide planned giving advice to individuals wishing to make significant charitable gifts, including helping individuals and families establish their own private foundations.

FAQs

Question:

Should you have a Will?

Answer:

In Alberta, if you do not have a Will, your estate will be distributed pursuant to the intestacy provisions of the Wills and Succession Act. Other assets, such as property held jointly with another person or property which has a designated beneficiary (such as life insurance or RRSPs) will pass directly to the surviving joint owner or the designated beneficiary if they survive you, and generally not form part of your estate. There may, however, be circumstances where assets are held in joint tenancy for administrative convenience but are intended to be distributed to someone other than the joint tenant.

Question:

What is an Enduring Power of Attorney (EPA)?

Answer:

An Enduring Power of Attorney (EPA) allows you to appoint someone (your Attorney) to manage your financial affairs. An EPA “endures” even if you lose your mental capacity, meaning that the person you appoint can manage your financial affairs in the event that you become mentally incapacitated.

Question:

What is a Personal Directive (PD)?

Answer:

A Personal Directive (PD) allows you to appoint someone (your Agent) to make decisions with respect to personal and healthcare-related matters in the event you are unable to make reasonable decisions concerning such matters (or unable to communicate such decisions). A Personal Directive is also sometimes referred to as a “living will.”

Question:

What Are The Steps to Preparing a Legally-Enforceable Will?

Answer:

The first step to preparing a Will, Enduring Power of Attorney and Personal Directive is a consultation with a lawyer. Your individual needs and wishes will be discussed and you may be asked to complete an Estate Planning Questionnaire prior to the meeting. Once the documents have been drafted, the drafts will be sent to you for your review and comment. Once it is confirmed that the documents properly reflect your wishes, a meeting will be scheduled with the lawyer to execute the documents.

Question:

How Long Does It Typically Take for a Will to be Drafted?

Answer:

A Will may be drafted quickly once final instructions are received. The process of finalizing a Will typically takes 4-6 weeks to complete (after the first meeting with an estate planning lawyer). However, we can typically prepare documents faster where such documents need to be executed on an urgent basis.

Question:

How Much Do You Charge to Prepare a Will?

Answer:

As every individual has unique and specific requests and circumstances, our fees for preparing a legally-enforceable Will, Enduring Power of Attorney and Personal Directive is determined on an individual basis. Please contact one of our lawyers for further information.

Question:

Will your spouse receive all of your Estate?

Answer:

The Wills and Succession Act prescribes that, after payment of debts, your spouse or "adult interdependent partner" will only receive the whole of your estate if all of your surviving 'descendants' are also the 'descendants' of your spouse or adult interdependent partner. 'Descendants' is given a broad definition under the Wills and Succession Act, and means more than just children. Therefore, if even one of your children, grandchildren or great-grandchildren are not also the children, grandchildren or great-grandchildren of your surviving spouse or adult interdependent partner - he or she will not receive the entirety of your estate.

Question:

What happens when you leave some of your estate to minor children?

Answer:

As a general rule, all property (including money) in excess of $5,000 which a minor (under 18 years of age) is entitled to receive must be delivered to the Public Trustee. If the surviving parent wishes to manage your child's property on his or her behalf, they will have to obtain a Court Order appointing them as trustee of the child's property. Of perhaps greater concern is that, without a properly drafted Will, the Public Trustee will be required to release all of your child's or grandchild's property to him or her when they reach the age of majority - irrespective of the value of the property or his or her ability to handle money. This situation can be avoided with a properly-drafted Will.

Question:

What is a guardian?

Answer:

The biological or adoptive parents of a child are presumptively the legal guardians of the child - however, you may have concerns about your child's other biological parent or want your spouse (who may be a custodial adult through second marriage but not your child's biological parent) to be the guardian of your child. If such concerns or wishes are not clearly expressed in a Will, they are unlikely to be honoured.

Question:

What about your other wishes?

Answer:

Do you want a particular child to receive all of your jewellery on your death? Is it your wish that the Guardian of your children not work outside the home? Do you want to be cremated? Do you want to designate the person who is to be the executor and Trustee of your estate? Do you want to leave a gift to a favourite charity? If so, you need a properly drafted Will. A Will is the only way to ensure that your choices regarding support and protection of your children, distribution of property, funeral instructions and any other testamentary wishes are communicated and legally enforceable.
